QUEEN MARY 2

QUEEN VICTORIA

QUEEN ELIZABETH™

QUEEN ANNE

Welcome to the incomparable world of Cunard

Why is it that many of our discerning guests say that they would never sail with anyone else?
Is it our famous White Star Service? Our Gala Balls, our Afternoon Teas or our choice of restaurants and bars?
Or is it something less obvious? Something that goes almost unseen.
Every single personal touch. Every 'extra mile'. Every 'as it should be'. Every 'just what I needed'.
There's a fine line between cruising and Cunard.
Cross it with us.

Queen Elizabeth local season
Queen Elizabeth's four-month Australia and New Zealand season, from November to March, will include voyages ranging from two-night sojourns between Sydney and Melbourne, to longer journeys of Queensland, Tasmania, New Zealand, and the South Pacific.

White Star Service
From the very first greeting when you embark to the way your stateroom steward greets you by name, we believe great service is warm and sincere - it isn't stuffy or hurried. It's always friendly, but never over familiar.

Uncrowded Spaces
On board Cunard's ships, guests enjoy a harmonious sense of spaciousness. From broad open decks to airy atriums, you're as sure to discover a restful spot as lively activity - somewhere to suit your changing mood.

The Suite Life
Take everything you love about Cunard to the highest level and escape to your private address at sea. Step into an exclusive sanctuary of space and discover a world of effortless indulgence, from bespoke dining and personalised service to hosting your own parties.

Gala Nights
Our gala balls transform an evening on board into a glamorous event, where you can dance to a live orchestra in the elegant Queens Room. Use this opportunity to sparkle in your best evening gown and be your most glamorous self.

Afternoon Tea
Classically British, Afternoon Tea is a tradition we observe daily. Our white-gloved waiters serve the perfect tea in the Queens Room, with freshly-baked scones and cream and exquisitely-cut finger sandwiches.

Meet the Cunard fleet

The sight of our ships and their distinctive red and black funnels always causes a stir, wherever they dock.

Here is your guide to our iconic fleet.

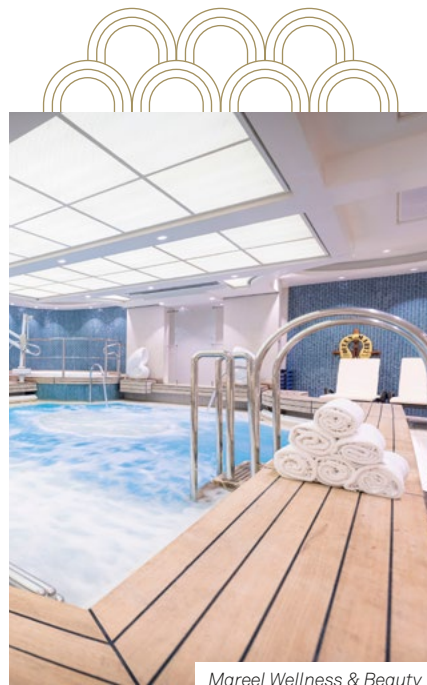

Sailing
in 2024

Queen Mary 2

The world's only true ocean liner, offering the only regular Transatlantic service between Southampton and New York. Queen Mary 2's elegance and style are like no other, built to sail the ocean waves, with the strength to cut through the mighty Atlantic Ocean.

Highlights:

- ◆ Illuminations – a full-scale planetarium (the largest at sea) which also becomes a 3D cinema
- ◆ Kennels – dogs and cats can travel in pampered comfort on Transatlantic Crossings between New York and Southampton
- ◆ Library – the largest library at sea with over 8,000 books
- ◆ Queens Room – home to our famous Afternoon Teas and Gala Evenings, featuring the largest dance floor at sea.

Mareel Wellness & Beauty

Queen Anne

Due to grace the seas from May 2024, Queen Anne's breathtaking interiors take inspiration from our past to define a striking new design direction for our future. A ship that offers both exciting, novel experiences, as well as our much-loved signature venues.

Facts:

- ◆ 113,000 GRT (Gross Registered Tonnage) ship will carry 3,000 guests
- ◆ 249th ship to fly the Cunard flag
- ◆ Cunard's first new ship in 14 years, since the launch of Queen Elizabeth in 2010
- ◆ World-class design team recruited to create the ship's interiors.

Queen Victoria

Queen Victoria is similar in size and layout to Queen Elizabeth. She's the first Cunard ship to have had a female Captain – Inger Klein Thorhauge – and the first in the world to offer private theatre boxes at sea.

Highlights:

- ◆ Winter Garden – a relaxed room with floor to ceiling windows and some of the best views out to sea
- ◆ Aft sun-deck – offering outdoor seating and loungers, alfresco dining and live entertainment
- ◆ The gin and fizz themed menu in the Midships lounge – this brings to life wines, prosecco, cava and champagne alongside premium gin and spirits.

Britannia Club restaurant

Queen Elizabeth

Queen Elizabeth was christened by her namesake, Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth, and joined the fleet in 2010. Queen Elizabeth offers an evocative art deco elegance. She exudes style and has an especially refined feel offering an uncrowded world with spacious decks to savour the Cunard experience.

Highlights:

- ◆ The Garden Lounge – a light and sociable room inspired by London's Kew Gardens
- ◆ Games Deck – a dedicated area to enjoy croquet, traditional bowls or paddle tennis
- ◆ Mareel Wellness & Beauty, the new holistic spa experience, exclusive to Cunard.
